

Sharmila in Q-School final stage

TIMES NEWS NETWORK

New Delhi: Sharmila Nicolle of India played some fine golf under pressure to qualify for the final stage of the Ladies European Tour Q-School with a superb even par 73 at the La Manga South Course on Wednesday evening, according to information reaching here.

Sharmila finished with a four-round score of eight-over 296 in the tournament played over two courses. Sharmila finished in a tie for 19th place, up from tied 27th overnight.

Sharmila had rounds of 74, 80, 69 and 73 and was the only Indian to make the final stage of the LET's Qualifying School. "It is a fantastic feeling, but I have one more step to go. It has been a great experience playing in these kind of conditions and in such a field," said Sharmila, who will now play in the 90-hole Final Stage that begins on Sunday. Sharmila had a great two-under 69 on third day.
