

Date	Website	Link
25 th January 2017	Business-standard.com	http://www.business-standard.com/article/pti-stories/neha-tripathi-eyes-an-encore-117012400606_1.html

Neha Tripathi eyes an encore

Buoyed by her winning start to the season, Kolkata's Neha Tripathi would seek an encore in the second leg of the Hero Women's Professional Golf Tour at the Kensville Golf and Country Club here. The Rs 6 lakh event featuring 12 professionals and lone amateur Sifat Alag will commence on January 25.

Neha Tripathi will be keen on keeping the momentum going in the second leg. Having pocketed Rs 1,44,000 for her efforts in the first event, she will look to consolidate her position atop the Hero Order of Merit.

However, she is expected to face tough competition from the likes of Amandeep Drall and Smriti Mehra.

Panchkula's Amandeep Drall, who came a close second in the first event, would be keen to make amends and will be eyeing her maiden title of the season.

She is currently placed second in the Hero Order of Merit with earnings of Rs 1,14,000. Kolkata's Smriti Mehra impressed everyone with a strong comeback in the final round last week, and would be eyeing a win at Kensville. She finished third and would like to keep the momentum going.

This event also marks the return of Hero MotoCorp sponsored Sharmila Nicollet, who will be playing her first professional tournament of the season at Kensville, and will look to turn heads with her performance.

Kapurthala's Gursimar Badwal did not have the best of outings in the last event, and would be eager to make an impact. Other golfers to watch out for are Chandigarh's Saaniya Sharma, Gurgaon's Gaurika Bishnoi and New Delhi's Mehar Atwal.

The picturesque par-72 course at Kensville Golf & Country Club is all set to host the country's leading women professional golfers.

Date	Website	Link
25 th January 2017	Sportsstarlive.com	http://www.sportstarlive.com/golf/womens-golf-tour-neha-tripathi-eyes-an-encore-in-second-leg/article9499551.ece

Women's Golf Tour: Neha Tripathi eyes an encore in second leg

Buoyed by her winning start to the season, Kolkata's Neha Tripathi would seek an encore in the second leg of the Hero Women's Professional Golf Tour at the Kensville Golf and Country Club here in Ahmedabad.

The Rs. 6 lakh event featuring 12 professionals and lone amateur Sifat Alag will commence on January 25. Neha Tripathi will be keen on keeping the momentum going in the second leg.

Having pocketed Rs. 1,44,000 for her efforts in the first event, she will look to consolidate her position atop the Hero Order of Merit. However, she is expected to face tough competition from the likes of Amandeep Drall and Smriti Mehra.

Panchkula's Amandeep Drall, who came a close second in the first event, would be keen to make amends and will be eyeing her maiden title of the season.

She is currently placed second in the Hero Order of Merit with earnings of Rs. 1,14,000. Kolkata's Smriti Mehra impressed everyone with a strong comeback in the final round last week, and would be eyeing a win at Kensville. She finished third and would like to keep the momentum going.

This event also marks the return of Hero Moto Corp sponsored Sharmila Nicollet, who will be playing her first professional tournament of the season at Kensville, and will look to turn heads with her performance.

Kapurthala's Gursimar Badwal did not have the best of outings in the last event, and would be eager to make an impact. Other golfers to watch out for are Chandigarh's Saaniya Sharma, Gurgaon's Gaurika Bishnoi and New Delhi's Mehar Atwal.

The picturesque par-72 course at Kensville Golf & Country Club is all set to host the country's leading women professional golfers.

Date	Website	Link
25 th January 2017	Newsboss.in	http://newsboss.in/ly/7Ti3tH/Neha-Tripathi-eyes-an-encore

Neha Tripathi eyes an encore

Buoyed by her winning start to the season, Kolkata's Neha Tripathi would seek an encore in the second leg of the Hero Women's Professional Golf Tour at the Kensville Golf and Country Club here. The Rs 6 lakh event featuring 12 professionals and lone amateur Sifat Alag will commence on January 25.

Neha Tripathi will be keen on keeping the momentum going in the second leg. Having pocketed Rs 1,44,000 for her efforts in the first event, she will look to consolidate her position atop the Hero Order of Merit.

However, she is expected to face tough competition from the likes of Amandeep Drall and Smriti Mehra.

Panchkula's Amandeep Drall, who came a close second in the first event, would be keen to make amends and will be eyeing her maiden title of the season.

She is currently placed second in the Hero Order of Merit with earnings of Rs 1,14,000. Kolkata's Smriti Mehra impressed everyone with a strong comeback in the final round last week, and would be eyeing a win at Kensville. She finished third and would like to keep the momentum going.

This event also marks the return of Hero MotoCorp sponsored Sharmila Nicollet, who will be playing her first professional tournament of the season at Kensville, and will look to turn heads with her performance.

Kapurthala's Gursimar Badwal did not have the best of outings in the last event, and would be eager to make an impact. Other golfers to watch out for are Chandigarh's Saaniya Sharma, Gurgaon's Gaurika Bishnoi and New Delhi's Mehar Atwal.

The picturesque par-72 course at Kensville Golf & Country Club is all set to host the country's leading women professional golfers.

Date	Website	Link
25 th January 2017	IANSlive.in	http://www.ianslive.in/index.php?param=news/Neha_eyes_encore_at_womens_golf_tour-540174/SPORTS/9

Neha eyes encore at women's golf tour

Ahmedabad, Jan 24: Buoyed by her winning start to the season, Kolkatas Neha Tripathi is seeking an encore in the second leg of the Hero Womens Professional Golf Tour which tees off at the picturesque par-72 course at Kensville Golf and Country Club here from Wednesday.

Having pocketed Rs 1,44,000 for her effort in the first leg, she will look to consolidate her position atop the Hero Order of Merit. However, she is expected to face tough competition from the likes of Amandeep Drall and Smriti Mehra.

Panchkula's Amandeep, who came a close second in the first event, would be keen to make amends and will be eyeing her maiden title of the season. She is currently placed second in the Hero Order of Merit with earnings of Rs 1,14,000.

Kolkata's Smriti impressed everyone with a strong comeback in the final round last week, and would be eyeing a win at Kensville here. She finished third and would like to keep the momentum going.

This event also marks the return of Sharmila Nicollet, who will be playing her first professional tournament of the season, and will look to turn heads with her performance.

Kapurthala's Gursimar Badwal did not have the best of outings in the last event and would be eager to make an impact.

Other golfers to watch out for are Chandigarh's Saaniya Sharma, Gurgaon's Gaurika Bishnoi and New Delhi's Mehar Atwal.

Date	Website	Link
25 th January 2017	Indialivetoday.com	http://www.indialivetoday.com/neha-eyes-encore-at-womens-golf-tour/105570.html

Golf Tour:Neha Tripathi eyes an encore

Ahmedabad, Buoyed by her winning start to the season, Kolkata's Neha Tripathi would seek an encore in the second leg of the Hero Women's Professional Golf Tour at the Kensville Golf and Country Club here. The Rs 6 lakh event featuring 12 professionals and lone amateur Sifat Alag will commence on January 25.

Neha Tripathi will be keen on keeping the momentum going in the second leg. Having pocketed Rs 1,44,000 for her efforts in the first event, she will look to consolidate her position atop the Hero Order of Merit.

However, she is expected to face tough competition from the likes of Amandeep Drall and Smriti Mehra.

Panchkula's Amandeep Drall, who came a close second in the first event, would be keen to make amends and will be eyeing her maiden title of the season.

She is currently placed second in the Hero Order of Merit with earnings of Rs 1,14,000. Kolkata's Smriti Mehra impressed everyone with a strong comeback in the final round last week, and would be eyeing a win at Kensville. She finished third and would like to keep the momentum going.

This event also marks the return of Hero MotoCorp sponsored Sharmila Nicollet, who will be playing her first professional tournament of the season at Kensville, and will look to turn heads with her performance.

Kapurthala's Gursimar Badwal did not have the best of outings in the last event, and would be eager to make an impact. Other golfers to watch out for are Chandigarh's Saaniya Sharma, Gurgaon's Gaurika Bishnoi and New Delhi's Mehar Atwal.

The picturesque par-72 course at Kensville Golf & Country Club is all set to host the country's leading women professional golfers.

Date	Website	Link
25 th January 2017	Shafaqna.com	http://in.shafaqna.com/EN/03954032

Neha Tripathi eyes an encore

A Buoyed by her winning start to the season, Kolkata's Neha Tripathi would seek an encore in the second leg of the Hero Women's Professional Golf Tour at the Kensville Golf and Country Club here. The Rs 6 lakh event featuring 12 professionals and lone amateur Sifat Alag will commence on January 25.

Neha Tripathi will be keen on keeping the momentum going in the second leg. Having pocketed Rs 1,44,000 for her efforts in the first event, she will look to consolidate her position atop the Hero Order of Merit.

However, she is expected to face tough competition from the likes of Amandeep Drall and Smriti Mehra.

Panchkula's Amandeep Drall, who came a close second in the first event, would be keen to make amends and will be eyeing her maiden title of the season.

She is currently placed second in the Hero Order of Merit with earnings of Rs 1,14,000. Kolkata's Smriti Mehra impressed everyone with a strong comeback in the final round last week, and would be eyeing a win at Kensville. She finished third and would like to keep the momentum going.

This event also marks the return of Hero MotoCorp sponsored Sharmila Nicollet, who will be playing her first professional tournament of the season at Kensville, and will look to turn heads with her performance.

Kapurthala's Gursimar Badwal did not have the best of outings in the last event, and would be eager to make an impact. Other golfers to watch out for are Chandigarh's Saaniya Sharma, Gurgaon's Gaurika Bishnoi and New Delhi's Mehar Atwal.

The picturesque par-72 course at Kensville Golf & Country Club is all set to host the country's leading women professional golfers.

Date	Website	Link
25 th January 2017	Indianexpress.com	http://indianexpress.com/article/sports/golf/neha-tripathi-eyes-an-encore-at-womens-professional-golf-tour-second-leg-4489676/

Neha Tripathi eyes an encore at Women's Professional Golf Tour second leg

Buoyed by her winning start to the season, Kolkata's Neha Tripathi would seek an encore in the second leg of the Hero Women's Professional Golf Tour at the Kensville Golf and Country Club here.

The Rs 6 lakh event featuring 12 professionals and lone amateur Sifat Alag will commence on January 25.

Neha Tripathi will be keen on keeping the momentum going in the second leg. Having pocketed Rs 1,44,000 for her efforts in the first event, she will look to consolidate her position atop the Hero Order of Merit.

However, she is expected to face tough competition from the likes of Amandeep Drall and Smriti Mehra.

Panchkula's Amandeep Drall, who came a close second in the first event, would be keen to make amends and will be eyeing her maiden title of the season.

She is currently placed second in the Hero Order of Merit with earnings of Rs 1,14,000. Kolkata's Smriti Mehra impressed everyone with a strong comeback in the final round last week, and would be eyeing a win at Kensville. She finished third and would like to keep the momentum going.

This event also marks the return of Hero MotoCorp sponsored Sharmila Nicollet, who will be playing her first professional tournament of the season at Kensville, and will look to turn heads with her performance.

Kapurthala's Gursimar Badwal did not have the best of outings in the last event, and would be eager to make an impact. Other golfers to watch out for are Chandigarh's Saaniya Sharma, Gurgaon's Gaurika Bishnoi and New Delhi's Mehar Atwal.

The picturesque par-72 course at Kensville Golf & Country Club is all set to host the country's leading women professional golfers.

Date	Website	Link
25 th January 2017	Timesofindia.com	http://timesofindia.indiatimes.com/sports/golf/top-stories/neha-tripathi-eyes-an-encore/articleshow/56760435.cms

Neha Tripathi eyes an encore

AHMEDABAD: Buoyed by her winning start to the season, Kolkata's Neha Tripathi would seek an encore in the second leg of the Hero Women's Professional Golf Tour at the Kensville Golf and Country Club here. The Rs 6 lakh event featuring 12 professionals and lone amateur Sifat Alag will commence on January 25.

Neha Tripathi will be keen on keeping the momentum going in the second leg. Having pocketed Rs 1,44,000 for her efforts in the first event, she will look to consolidate her position atop the Hero Order of Merit. However, she is expected to face tough competition from the likes of Amandeep Drall and Smriti Mehra.

Panchkula's Amandeep Drall, who came a close second in the first event, would be keen to make amends and will be eyeing her maiden title of the season. She is currently placed second in the Hero Order of Merit with earnings of Rs 1,14,000. Kolkata's Smriti Mehra impressed everyone with a strong comeback in the final round last week, and would be eyeing a win at Kensville. She finished third and would like to keep the momentum going.

This event also marks the return of Hero MotoCorp sponsored Sharmila Nicollet, who will be playing her first professional tournament of the season at Kensville, and will look to turn heads with her performance.

Kapurthala's Gursimar Badwal did not have the best of outings in the last event, and would be eager to make an impact. Other golfers to watch out for are Chandigarh's Saaniya Sharma, Gurgaon's Gaurika Bishnoi and New Delhi's Mehar Atwal.

The picturesque par-72 course at Kensville Golf & Country Club is all set to host the country's leading women professional golfers.

Date	Website	Link
25 th January 2017	Millenniumpost.in	http://www.millenniumpost.in/sports/news-180566

Neha Tripathi Eyes Encore At Women's Golf Tour

Buoyed by her winning start to the season, Kolkata's Neha Tripathi would seek an encore in the second leg of the Hero Women's Professional Golf Tour at the Kensville Golf and Country Club here. The Rs 6 lakh event featuring 12 professionals and lone amateur Sifat Alag will commence on January 25.

Neha Tripathi will be keen on keeping the momentum going in the second leg. Having pocketed Rs 1,44,000 for her efforts in the first event, she will look to consolidate her position atop the Hero Order of Merit.

However, she is expected to face tough competition from the likes of Amandeep Drall and Smriti Mehra. Panchkula's Amandeep Drall, who came a close second in the first event, would be keen to make amends and will be eyeing her maiden title of the season.

She is currently placed second in the Hero Order of Merit with earnings of Rs 1,14,000. Kolkata's Smriti Mehra impressed everyone with a strong comeback in the final round last week, and would be eyeing a win at Kensville. She finished third and would like to keep the momentum going.

This event also marks the return of Hero MotoCorp sponsored Sharmila Nicollet, who will be playing her first professional tournament of the season at Kensville, and will look to turn heads with her performance.

Kapurthala's Gursimar Badwal did not have the best of outings in the last event, and would be eager to make an impact. Other golfers to watch out for are Chandigarh's Saaniya Sharma, Gurgaon's Gaurika Bishnoi and New Delhi's Mehar Atwal.

The picturesque par-72 course at Kensville Golf & Country Club is all set to host the country's leading women professional golfers.

Date	Website	Link
25 th January 2017	Rajasthanpatrika.com	http://rajasthanpatrika.patrika.com/story/sports/neha-eyes-hero-women-s-professional-golf-tour-2456617.html

Neha's Eyes Second Title Of The Year

Ahmedabad.

Kolkata's Neha Tripathi, who started New Year's triumphant eyes Hero Women's Professional Golf Tour, starting from Wednesday to win the second stage will be to maintain their impressive form. Neha had recently won the first stage. The first phase of the Rs 144,000 prize money to his name, won the Order of Merit Neha hero will try to maintain its top position.

Neha and Smriti Mehra Dral Amandeep in the tournament is expected to pose a formidable challenge. Panchkula Amandeep had finished second in the first stage. He is on course with the goal of winning the stage debut. Try as well as their will to move forward in Merritt beat Neha.

He is currently the Hero Order of Merit with earnings of Rs 1,14,000 in second place. Towards the end of the first stage performers memory of Kolkata had drawn the attention of all. This phase is also expected to do well these three apart from Sharmila Nicollet and the winning bid will badwal Gursimar of Kapurthala.