Vani's return adds colour to 4th leg of women's golf meet

Kolkata, Feb 20 - With one win each for Neha Tripathi, Amandeep Drall and Gaurika Bishnoi in the first three legs, and the return of Vani Kapoor from her overseas commitments, the fourth Leg of the Hero Womens Professional Golf Tour at the Tollygunge Club promises to be an exciting contest that will begin from Tuesday.

Gaurika is currently leading the Hero Order of Merit with total earnings of Rs 300,000. Having won the previous leg, Gaurika will look to add another win to her tally and consolidate her position atop the money list. Neha is currently placed second in the Hero Order of Merit with total earnings of Rs 2,70,000. She hasn't been at her best in the last few events and will be keen to make amends.

Another strong contender for the title is Amandeep, who has registered one win and one runner-up finish in two appearances. She is currently placed fourth in the Hero Order of Merit with total earnings of Rs 2,46,000. However, Gaurika, Neha and Amandeep will have to ward off a strong challenge from the likes of Smriti Mehra and Vani Kapoor.

Kolkata's Smriti Mehra's performance has been consistent in the previous events, and she will look to win her maiden title of the season. She is currently placed third in the money list with total earnings of Rs 2,52,000.

The fourth leg also marks the return of Delhi's Vani, who had a sensational season last year, having won seven titles and finishing atop the Hero Order of Merit. She too will look to grab a win in her first appearance this season.

Chandigarh's Saaniya Sharma who finished runner-up in the last event, will be looking to better her performance with a win here.

Other players in the fray are Kapurthala's Gursimar Badwal, Sharmila Nicollet and Jaipur's Afshan Fatima.

Amandeep, Saaniya eager to make a move forward

Having missed the last leg of the tournament, Amandeep Drall would be eager to make a move up the Order of Merit when she tees off at the Kolkata's Tollygunge Club tomorrow.

With one win each for Neha Tripathi, Amandeep Drall and Gaurika Bishnoi in the first three legs, respectively, and the return of Vani Kapoor from her overseas commitments, the 4th leg of the Hero Women's Professional Golf Tour 2017 promises to be an exciting contest. The INR 7,00,000 event will feature 16 professionals.

Gurugram's Gaurika is currently leading the Order of Merit with total earnings of INR 3,00,000. Having won the previous leg, Gaurika will look to add another win to her tally and consolidate her position atop the money list. Neha is currently placed second in the money list with total earnings of Rs 2,70,000. She hasn't been at her best in the last few events and would be keen to make amends.

On the other hand, Amandeep, who has registered one win and one runners-up finish in her two appearances, is placed fourth in the Order of Merit with total earnings of Rs 2,46,000 and would be keen to climb up the money list. The trio, however, will have to ward off a strong challenge from the likes of Smriti Mehra and Vani Kapoor. Kolkata's Smriti Mehra's performance has been consistent in the previous events and she will look to win her maiden title of the season at home. She is currently placed third in the money list with total earnings of Rs 2,52,000.

The fourth leg also marks the return of New Delhi's Vani Kapoor, who had a sensational season last year, having won seven titles and finishing atop the Order of Merit. She too will look to grab a win in her first appearance this season.

Chandigarh's Saaniya Sharma who finished runners up in the last event will be looking to better her performance with a win in Kolkata. Other players in the fray are Kapurthala's Gursimar Badwal, Sharmila Nicollet and Jaipur's Afshan Fatima.

The par 70 golf course is all set to host some of the best professional women golfers of this country.
